Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the Great State of South Dakota, commend the University of South Dakota

* for sponsoring a research conference on "Women and Equality" April 13 through 15, 1988, to provide a forum for the discussion and evaluation of research on women; and,

* for providing the opportunity to identify issues related to equality for and among women; and, * for bringing to the attention of our public the contributions of women in the areas of history, art, law, government, religion, literature, sports, education, and the economy; and,

* for addressing needs of women and addiction and sexual harassment in our society; and,

* for bringing together individuals who are concerned for the status of equality between the sexes.

South Dakotans appreciate the Office of the President of the University of South Dakota and the University of South Dakota Women's Caucus as leaders in our state in the study of women and equality and encourage them in their commitment to the challenges and resolutions of inequality.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-First Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
